

Adam Odesser

Adam is the JCRC's Program Associate, Israel Action Center. Adam is a native Israeli, having grown up in Jerusalem and recently relocating with his family to the DC area. In Israel, Adam worked as a Seminar Leader for the NGO, Gesher, facilitating dialogue on issues surrounding Jewish Identity, religion, and social differences. Prior to this, Adam served as the Student Affairs Coordinator and as a Marketing Research Associate at The Hebrew University of Jerusalem's Business School. Adam served in the IDF for 4 years in the Home Front Command Unit as a Reserves Recruiter and Training Officer. He is a graduate of the Hebrew University of Jerusalem with a dual degree in Political Science and Business Administration and Management. Adam and his wife currently live in Potomac with their baby daughter.