

Darcy L. Hirsh, ESQ.

Darcy is the JCRC Director of Virginia and District of Columbia Government and Community Relations. In this role, she advocates before local, state, and federal government officials on matters of significance to the Northern Virginia and DC Jewish communities. She also performs community and interfaith outreach and manages coalitional efforts on issues of shared concern. Darcy has previously served as the Associate Director of the Anti-Defamation League Washington, DC Regional office and prior to that, Director of Day School Advocacy at UJA-Federation of New York. She holds a Juris Doctor from the Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law in New York City, a Master of Theological Studies degree from Harvard Divinity School, and a Bachelor of Arts degree in Religious Studies from Barnard College. Darcy and her husband live in Chevy Chase, DC with their son and daughter.